

IXL Diagnostic

IXL Diagnostic allows junior high and high school math teachers to identify what their students know so the teachers can help students learn more efficiently, keep up with progressing students, and engage and empower students. IXL provides teachers with baseline data on every student so the teacher can measure student growth. The Highmore-Harrold School District currently does not allow students to opt-out of student growth or diagnostic assessments.